

SWEET HARVEST FOODS

Third Quarter 2022

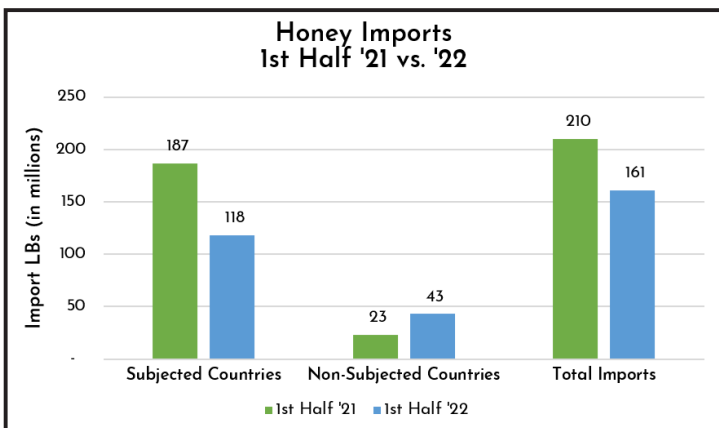

HONEY MARKET UPDATE

ANTI-DUMPING UPDATE

- AD orders published in June 2022.
- Next duty rate review in November 2024.
- Critical Circumstance ruling is being appealed.

MARKET UPDATES

- First half 2022 honey imports down nearly 30%, led by Vietnam, Brazil and Argentina.
- India imports are strong behind favorable weather and AD impact on Vietnam supply.
- Gains from Mexico and Uruguay also notable.
- Limited imports from Ukraine are becoming available via adjacent countries.

Reduced YTD imports driven by AD subject countries.

* Data from USDA National Honey Report

KEY TAKE-AWAYS

- Industry is in a post-AD operating environment that will last for years.
- Rising inflation is driving changes to consumer environment.
- Volatility and uncertainty remain.

ADDITIONAL UPDATES

Retail Honey:

- Inflation driving consumer shift to private label.
- YTD retail prices +23% vs PY.

Logistics:

- Ocean capacity is freeing up, leading to softening of overseas freight rates.
- Port congestion remains high and has spread beyond the West Coast.

DID YOU KNOW?

SOURCE VERIFIED HONEY

Sweet Harvest Foods is the First and Only honey company to have the USDA independently verify its supply chain.

